HERE AT HOME.

Maysville Citizens Gladly Testify.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the Old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen:

Mr. Elias Scudder, nurseryman, residing at 215 Casto street, says:

"I had a good deal of pain at times in my right kidney and it constantly grew more persistent. When I learned of Dean's Kidney Pills I could hardly sit down in a chair or rise without placing my hands to my back, and should I thoughtlessly bend over it pained me severely to straighten. I procured Dean's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and their use effected an absolute cure."

EX-SENATOR WOLCOTT deprecates the introduction of Kentucky methods into Colorado, but then goes on to appeal to all Republicans to stand by the proposition arbitrarily to unseat all the delegates from Arapahoe county. Commenting on the attitude of Mr. WOLCOTT, The Louisville Evening Post reverts to the disgraceful proceedings at Frankfort during the legislative session of 1896, yet fails to see in what respects the situation in Colorado, or the program of either party, justifies the former Senator from Colorado reflecting on Kentucky.

The history of Kentucky is one for warning, not for imitation, and yet Tennessee and Indiana first practiced the so-called Kentucky methods, and Delaware and Colorado are imitating them. Bad as we are in Kentucky, unfortunately we do not stand alone.

Mr. WOLCOTT is supported by a majority of the Republican members duly elected, but—like Senator BLACKBURN in the Democratic caucus in Kentucky in the session of 1896—he cannot command the support of his own party.

Like Senator BLACKBURN, he declines to take any course which will unite his party on any one candidate insuring his election.

The friends of Mr. TELLER hope by keeping the Republicans divided they may, by Democratic votes, elect Senator TELLER.

It was possible in Kentucky in 1896, says The Post, for the Republicans, who could not unite on a Republican candidate, to elect Secretary CARLISLE by the aid of the Gold Democrats, but they were not equal to the emergency, and let slip the greatest opportunity that ever came to any party in this state.

But the Republicans were not only unable to rise to this occasion; they were not able to cast a solid Republican vote for any Republican candidate, and the Legislature adjourned without electing a Senator.

The "even balance" was maintained by threats of revolution coming from the Blackburn camp, and by revolutionary acts. The Legislature was intimidated. Dr. WALTON and Mr. JAMES, Republicans, were forcibly expelled, and armed men, breathing out threatening and Unconscious From Croup.

During a sudden and terrible attack of croup our little girl was unconscious from strangulation, says A. L. Spafford, Postmaster, Chester, Mich., and a dose of One Minute Cough Cure was administered and repeated often. It reduced the swelling and inflammation, cut the mucus and shortly the child was resting easy and speedily recovered. It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure lingers in the throat and chest and enables the lungs to contribute pure, health-giving oxygen to the blood. J. J. Wood & Son.

slaughter against independent Democrats and Republicans alike, filled the cloakrooms. Representative government was overthrown in Kentucky for the first time, but not for the last.

In 1899, in the Democratic Convention at Music Hall, one-third of the delegates were expelled, jointly, not severally.

If we understand the news from Denver this is what Senator WOLCOTT says must be done by the Colorado Legislature. It is altogether revolutionary, and the only precedent for it is the precedent set by the Democratic Convention at Music Hall. No such method was ever adopted by the Kentucky Legislature.

There was in the Legislature which assembled January, 1900, some remarkable proceedings. The vote of Louisville determined the result in the contests for state officers. It was necessary to declare the election in Louisville null and void in order to show a majority for the defeated candidate.

Yet, in order to secure such a declaration from the Legislature, it was necessary to have the votes of four Democratic members from Louisville elected at the election which it was necessary to declare null and void.

The Legislature seated the Louisville delegation. It heard contests against certain Democratic members from Louisville and decided them in favor of the Democratic claimants. Then it unseated other Representatives, separately, not jointly, until they had a working majority. Then it declared, by aid of the Louisville Representatives, that there had been no election in Louisville, and declared GOEBEL and BECKHAM elected.

The vote on the contest was not taken until Senator GOEBEL was shot, and in fact there was no legislative session held which the journal says was held, but in Kentucky we do not go behind a journal written by Democrats for Democrats.

That is the story. It runs on parallel lines to that opening in Colorado. It was a revolution wrought by men who would not abide by the will of the people expressed at the polls. It was party rebellion against representative government. It commits the Democratic party for a time at least to the support of a political oligarchy erected on the ruins of popular and representative government, but it will ultimately destroy the Democratic party in Kentucky. It is maintained only by crime against the ballot, and these crimes must some day end.

We venture to suggest to the Republicans of Colorado that they abide unwaveringly by the voice of the people; that they stand by the principle of representation; that they do no wrong and consent to none, and that they do not exaggerate the importance to a party, to a faction, or to a man, of one seat in the Senate.

Brief Mention of a Day's Important Happenings in This Big World of Ours.

The Cambrian Railway Company is to issue free first-class passes for five years in favor of persons who undertake to build houses of £50 per year at the various Cambrian coast watering places.

A Gilbertian state of things obtains at Tenby, in Pembrokeshire, England, where the parish Clerk, by six votes to five, has been elected Mayor. As a result of this the Rector of the parish becomes Chaplain to his own Clerk.

The number of millionaires in Prussia has increased since 1899 from 6,016 to 6,601 according to the general tax returns. The late Herr Krupp's fortune shrank during the past three years $10,750,000, being now assessed at $46,750,000.

The postal service is confronted with a stringency in the supply of mail sacks and pouches and has called on all Postmasters to forward immediately all available sacks, pouches and mail locks to the various mail equipment depositories. It is estimated that there are 200,000 mail sacks and many thousands more of pouches and locks lying idle in Postoffices throughout the country.

Hens Beat Wheat.

Do you know that the total value of the eggs produced in this country last year almost equaled the value of the wheat crop? Seems hard to believe, but that is what statistics show. Even then it was necessary to import eggs to supply the home demand. The profits of your poultry yard can be readily increased if you will supply your hens with Chenoweth's Poultry Powder!

It never fails to increase the number and size of the eggs, and the cost is too small to consider—

The Virginia of the Pittsburgh Packet Line, which was to have left Pittsburgh for Cincinnati Saturday afternoon, did not depart on account of the uncertain condition of the river above. George West, an unknown deckhand on the towboat Mariner, was in some manner missed from the boat after the boat left Hall's woodyard in the Ohio river, and he is supposed to have drowned. He shipped from Pittsburgh to Louisville on the G. W. Thomas and reshipped from there to Pittsburgh on the Mariner. While his ability was recognized above the ordinary nothing was known of him by any of his mates.

LESSON IN AMERICAN HISTORY IN PUZZLE

BATTLE OF THE BONHOMME RICHARD AND SERAPIS.

Find Captain John Paul Jones.

No more thrilling and heroic incident connected with the history of America can be found than that of the capture of the English frigate Serapis, commanded by Capt. Pearson, by the Bonhomme Richard, commanded by Capt. John Paul Jones. It occurred on the evening of September 21, 1779, off Flamborough Head on the English coast. Every circumstance was against Jones; his strongest battery was disabled at the first fire; he had on board a large number of English prisoners; his crew and number of guns were less than those of his antagonist, but in the face of these he fought with a rapidly sinking ship under him until the British captain was forced to surrender.

CORRESPONDENCE

COTTAGEVILLE.

Friday afternoon in the Postoffice and store kept by E. C. Henderson, J. W. Osborn shot Deputy Sheriff William Hendrickson, the ball grazing the side of his head. Hendrickson wrenched the revolver from Osborn's hands and beat him on the head with an iron poker. Dr. T. J. Winder was called in to dress the wounds of both, after which Hendrickson took Osborn to the Vanceburg Jail. At the time of the trouble Osborn was drinking and swearing vengeance on those who indicted him at this term of Court, and began abusing Hendrickson before he attempted to arrest him. Osborn is a notorious character, who, for many years, has been a nuisance to this community. For the good of our neighborhood and county all are anxious to see the law enforced to the fullest extent on this occasion. Officer Hendrickson is to be commended and if all of our officers were like him there would be less lawlessness.

THE MISSOURI GIRL.

"The Missouri Girl," which comes to Washington Opera-house Wednesday, January 28th, is a play of the Old Home stead order, and one of the first of that kind to be written. That "imitation is the sincerest flattery" is clearly proven by the fact that in nearly every one of the later domestic comedies there can be seen traces of the Missouri Girl, which has enjoyed prosperity for the past eight years. The scenery is elaborate and the stage settings are built with an absolute disregard to cost, perfection being the one idea in view.

ITCHING ECZEMA

Instant Relief and Speedy Cure Afforded by

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills When All Else Fails.

COMPLETE TREATMENT, $1.00.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scaled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimplies and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, in the severer forms, take Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring and humiliating skin, scalp and blood humours, with loss of hair, when all else fails.
